The Mystery of Mother Teresa and Sainthood

Price: $9.95

Know about one of the most shocking “upsets” of all times.

19th. October, 2003...every stage was set in Vatican...Mother Teresa was to be conferred

Sainthood for her “miraculous cure” done to Monica Besra, a village girl from India. But that was never to be!

Prabir Ghosh, the General Secretary of the Science & Rationalist’s Association of India stood in between.

All meticulous planning by the catholic order was foiled by him who led the unparalleled investigation with stunning courage to ensure the victory of science over superstitions.

“The Mystery of Mother Teresa and sainthood” reveals the entire story which began in 2002 ...as soon as the story about Monica and her “magic cure” broke out, ...a guidebook even for the best of investigation services.

Stunning reaction from the news media..... BBC Radio, Reuter, AFP, Associated Press, PTI, UNI, all these vital news media reported the Rationalists’ view with utmost magnitude followed by the website of various news agencies and leading newspapers of the world, like American Broadcasting Corporation, Australian Broadcasting Corporation, German Broadcasting Corporation., Daily Telegraph, The Independent, TIME, New York Times, Le Monde etc.

Prabir Ghosh, the author of this book and the founder of Contemporary Rationalism, has debunked more than a thousand “godmen” and “astrologers” and exposed their miracles as cheap tricks better performed by magicians. In his crusade against superstitions and claims of “miraculous power” he has so far survived 20 life attempts at the international level.

A little glimpse of what some news media said in this book....

“Now he is challenging the claim of the Missionaries of Charity, who say a photograph of their founder, Mother Teresa, when placed over the stomach of 30-year-old Monica Besra, cured her of a tumour.”

-- BBC News, October 4, 2002

“Prabir Ghosh, head of the Science and Rationalist Association of India. Ghosh... based in Calcutta, has deflated the claims of many of India's self-proclaimed Hindu holy men and miracle workers. He doesn't believe that Mother Teresa's miracle should be exempt from scrutiny...

“Ghosh tells TIME that he will shut down his association and turn over its 2 million rupees ($40,000) to the Catholic order if the sisters will put the medallion to the test and have it cure another tumor.”

-- TIME, October 14, 2002 (The same article was published at US edition of TIME on October 21, 2002)

“Prabir Ghosh, secretary of the Calcutta-based Indian Rationalists Association, openly questions the miracle... Most agree with him that Mother Teresa does not need miracles to be declared a saint.”

-- BBC website , October 18, 2003

*An impeccably unbiased analysis and bone-chilling facts...all about the life of Mother Teresa in The Mystery of Mother Teresa & Sainthood, introduces you to the whole story of the Missionaries of Charity and Vatican...about the claims of her “miraculous feats” ...the most revealing investigation and much much more...that outclasses the best sold thrillers by miles...hence, becomes a must read!*

Terrorism: A Rational Point of View

Price: $9.95

Are rebels, insurgents, paramilitaries, separatists, radicals, militants, guerrillas, insurrectionists, fundamentalists.....all terrorists?

Did you ever wonder how this eight lettered word's striking the headlines of dailies all around the globe?

Are you sure to differentiate between a freedom fighter and a terrorist?

What's happening in Palestine or Kashmir?...Who are the real terrorists?

How terrifying a state sponsored terrorism could be?

Does terrorism always means guns of fire and explosions, or it has an extended version in political, cultural & economic context?

Or does terrorism claim its own exclusive niche?

The annoying inability to define terrorism is betrayed in the UN 2006 Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy – “we, the States Members of the United Nations.....strongly condemn terrorism in all its forms and manifestations, committed by whomever, wherever and for whatever purposes”.

TERRORISM: A rational point of view is the guide, resource and album designed to provide insights, in depth analysis & facts to the most burning issue of the planet...an extremely useful reference to be part of any serious social science collection.

It is a tremendously comprehensive chronicle about a subject that anyone who has anything to loose-from property to liberty, life to limbs-should read.

Authored by Prabir Ghosh, the most noted rationalist of the world, the originator of "Contemporary rationalism" is a much needed voice in the dispute on terrorism. this book dig into the depth of subject, never done before.

It helps you in...

Understanding the subject from all possible socio-political-economic-cultural angles.

Making you aware of your human-rights and the remedies when it's dishonored and much more... It's sure to revolutionize your perspective globally.

What readers say...

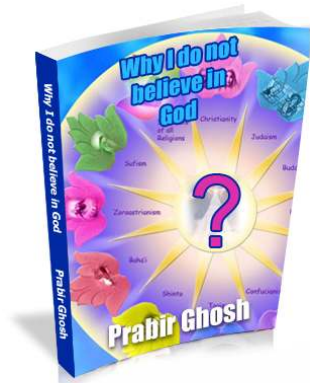

Prabir Ghosh is to be commended for producing such a brilliant piece with such analytical clarity and academic utility.

—Morris Whitefield, Professor, Middlesex, UK.

The book gives us a brilliant sight into the 'terrorist' psyche....The conceptual framework of the book has important insinuations for the law enforcement bodies, policy makers, and academic scholars engaged in the study of terrorism.

—Clifford Lynch, Kentucky, USA

Why I do not believe in god

Price: $9.95

Why should someone be an atheist?

Why should one question something believed in by a large percentage of people in society?

"Is there any reasonable basis for atheism and such skepticism - and, if so, what is it?"

The book "Why I do not believe in god?" another masterpiece of Prabir Ghosh, answers each and every question on the subject, in a great style and dismantles every possible definition of the "almighty" with clinical precision. Originally written in Bengali and a best-seller for many years, this unique collection is undoubtedly one of the best writings on atheism by one of the world's greatest rationalist of all times. The book addresses the most significant questions pertaining to religious belief...the existence of god...religion in relation to science...and presents a challenge to every organized religion on all fronts.

"This book is named 'Why I Do Not Believe in God'. Here the word 'I' does not mean me alone. 'I' represent a large number of common people who, like me, do not believe in the existence of god...I was sincere in my effort while collecting the points, and my friends and fellow rationalists supplied me with numerous arguments. Had I failed to counter any of these arguments, I would have, by now, joined the believers. If my readers inform me personally that I have missed any point I would incorporate them in the next edition of this book. In case I fail to refute any point, I on behalf of my organization, promise to close down the Science & Rationalists' Association and discontinue all my rationalist activities forever.." –says Prabir Ghosh, the author.

Prabir Ghosh, the author of this book and the most celebrated rationalist in the world has debunked more than a thousand "godmen" and "astrologers". His challenge of $62,500 to anyone claiming to possess "miraculous" power has already trounced more than a thousand "godmen" and "clairvoyants". In his crusade against superstitions and claims of "miraculous power" he has so far survived 20 life attempts at the international level.

The book is a precious addition to any thinking person's library. This book much more than a challenge to the dogma of supernatural infallibility. It walks around the sort of questioning and reasoning that goes on within a person's mind...a style never seen before.

With excellent scholarship and thorough detail, Prabir Ghosh powerfully and systematically tears apart the myth behind "God" ...refuting long held arguments of theists, laying to waste sacred and traditional beliefs of the faith...a must read for any free-thinker.
